

Job Opening for US-Licensed Lawyer

Hankyul Law Group in Seoul, Korea, is seeking applications from qualified lawyers for a senior associate position.

Requirements are: (i) J.D. degree from an ABA accredited law school in the U.S., (ii) admission to practice law, preferably in the State of New York or California. (iii) 5 or more years of experience, preferably in intellectual property and/or cross-border litigation areas. , and (iv) bilingual proficiency (native-level Korean and excellent-level English)

Please e-mail to recruitFA@hklaw.co.kr by March 10, 2018 your CV with 3 references, a copy of your bar admission certificate or a certificate of good standing, and your writing samples (a memorandum of law in English or Korean and/or a legal brief with confidential information redacted), . Please specify if we may approach your referees.

Qualified applicants will be contacted for an interview in March following our CV screening.